

Brookhaven Rail Terminal received their first shipment of lumber for a local fencing supplier. The load originated in the state of Washington.

Brookhaven Rail Terminal is Long Island's Sustainable rail freight solution providing terminal service, transloading services, logistics, container freight stations/container yard, and distribution services.